“Tra le tue Braccia” is the Italian version of Daniel Bedingfield’s hit song “If You’re Not the One.” It reached number one in the UK and peaked at number 15 in the US. The song was translated by producer michéal Castaldo and recorded in New York.

Classically trained singer, Karen Willough, makes her solo debut with this number. With a voice crossing between Emeli Sandé and Karen Carpenter, Willough adds new sensitivity to the song.

Majestic Castle Music Promotion will be servicing over 2000 radio stations worldwide including specialty radio programs.

On March 11, Willough had and an on-air interview with FAME Music Radio. Willough will be joining in an Italian cooking demonstration on April 3, 2016, at Paired in Chicago to promote the single. She currently resides in Chicago and sings regularly with the Mount Carmel Morning Choir. Additional radio and TV appearances will be posted on the Bending Willough website Press page.

Willough is currently working with Castaldo on her second release expected to be ready by late Spring 2016.
